

Lambda Chi Alpha Scholarship Application

Scholarship Information

Every year, the brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha search for three incoming men deserving of our annual academic scholarship. Though this scholarship is academic in nature, we do not simply look for the best students, but rather the most well-rounded individuals. We seek men who demonstrate their character through their extracurricular activities in addition to excellence in the classroom. Thus, our application does not include a written personal statement to examine applicants' writing abilities. Rather, recipients are chosen through an interview process that allows each applicant to freely display his unique, individual attributes.

Scholarships will be awarded to one first- and two second-place recipients, in the amounts of $500 and $250, respectively. Applicants are in no way bound to the Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity by applying for or receiving this scholarship.

Please submit all applications postmarked by October 1, 2006, to:

Lambda Chi Alpha
ATTN: Scholarship Selection Committee
2339 Sheridan Road
Evanston, IL 60201

You may also email the application to Alex Chun at A-Chun@northwestern.edu, or hand-deliver applications to any active member at the Lambda Chi Alpha house.

Applications are only open to incoming freshman males who will be enrolled full-time for the 2006-2007 academic year.

All applicants will be contacted for an interview soon after the application has been received. The winner will be announced at the fraternity's annual Thanksgiving Dinner held in late November.

For any questions or concerns, please feel free to e-mail Alex Chun at A-Chun@northwestern.edu, or call him at 412.478.8287.
